Corrigan's lawyers, Messrs. Howe and Hummel, assert that the decision of the General Term of the Superior Court does not in the least affect the standing of the Huron case. "There are two suits against the Jockey Club pending," said Mr. Hummel. "One is to recover the amount of moser won by Huron by finishing second in the Putirity and the other is regarding the rousal of Corrigan's entries. These cases will be argued before a judge in the Supreme Court and evidence presented to show that Huron was purchased with his engagements and that Mr. Corrigan was right in demanding to hisrt in the bigrace.
